

JAPAN'S VICTORIES OF PEACE AT WORLD'S FAIR

While Mikado Strikes at Russian Bear Empire Prepares for Commercial Conquest.

ISLAND SPENDS MILLION

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ST. LOUIS, April 9.—In the midst of war the Japanese government is spending $1,000,000 at the St.
Louis exposition.

Although the smallest world power is fighting the largest world power, the little kingdom of the Pacific is leading all nations in her display at the world's fair.

She has asked for more space than any two foreign governments combined and secured an allotment nearly equal to her demand. Her exhibits are outspread in nearly every one of the great palaces.

While her great installation booths are marvelously rich with inlaid natural woods and gold and lacquer, the most spectacular of her representation is found along the terraced hillside covered by the buildings and gardens of the imperial government and on the pike, where her quaint life is enacted by hundreds of Japanese living types.

Some of the rarest memories of the exposition will rise out of the fragile landscape of these government gardens hung with their shimmering lakelets and in-gates, seventy feet above the great boulevards of the fair. The hillside dropping precipitously from old Buddhist temples, are, to the eye, dense masses of vivid greens and the scarlet flame of a Japanese pastoral scene.

Tiny cascades leap from rocky basin to mossy pool down the slope. Rustic summer houses hang along the terraces. Far above them the steeply-curved bamboo roofs rise amid a forest of pine trees. The far Eastern architecture gleams in the sunshine with their burnished barisels. A noble gateway sheathed in lacquer and gilded plates gleams like mellow gold of King's treasures.

You may sip your tea from the waxen hands of Japanese girls, who minister to the American men seated in dainty, easy chairs on broad verandas shaded by soft colored canopies while the Japanese Imperial Band is playing in the gardens beneath.

If the imperial government has surpassed all of its efforts at foreign expositions, the most interesting drama of the life of Japan is being reproduced at the world's fair.

Thoroughfare of all nations which stretches for one mile through the exposition.

Guiding the approach of Japan is a wonderful reproduction of the gateway to the temple of Nekko, built three centuries ago by Jometsu, one of the rulers of Japan.

As a portal to the mortuary chapel of Ieyasu, his grandfather. The temple is one of the most famous of Japanese art.

Architecture at Nekko, the Mecca of art in the island kingdom, hence the proverb:
"Until you have seen Nekko, you may not say Nekko." (beautiful). It was decorated with gold and lacquer and the exquisite hand carvings are the work of the most famous artists of the period. It could not be duplicated now in the same materials for millions of dollars.

Passing through the great gateway the visitor is attracted by the most remarkable work of Japanese art at the exposition.
This is the original gateway of the old Buddhist Temple of Nio Mon, which has been imported from Japan by the government and afterward secured by the promoter of the display on the Pike. Nio Mon is valued at $1,000,000. The temple was the original decorations of gold lacquer, inlaid with silver and embellished with wonderful hand carvings. The temple was built by the Japanese noble, Sataki Jobunokyou. It was decorated by a celebrated artist, Kio Tomin. The gateway is a reality, a temple forty-two feet high by forty feet wide and eighty feet deep. It contains two stories and a hall was used in its construction. The building is covered with beautiful carvings. Besides being an exhibit, the structure contains hundreds of Buddhist figures and idols, executed in wood carving. Many of them are from 20 to 100 years old. The Buddhist priests will celebrate daily the rites of their religion in the dim interior.
Fits of the imperial garden at Tokyo, furnish the chromatic setting for the old temple.

Tea houses are on the lagoons and lakes, where forty genuine geisha girls will dance and play the shamisen. In a theater across the lake natives will illustrate ancient combats in armor, with long Japanese swords and spears. Strange cranes and storks wade in the water, from the banks of which grow many varieties of gorgeous Japanese flowers, ferns and mosses. Japanese roosters with tails ten to twenty-five feet long, are seen on tiny islets in the lake. Rustic bridges of the frum and other native types make the islands accessible from the shores.

The strange, strange water craft, carry visitors about the lagoon in a busy show of flanked by native stores, open for their entire front and piled with odd wares.
The life of a Japanese city is illustrated.
Japanese weaving girls, ten and twelve years old, weave rugs, street acrobats perform on high poles in a busy show of they do in the Mikado kingdom. A man who carries images from single bones of rice and Japanese fortune tellers, who weave their spells with metallic instruments instead of cards and trances, and the Jirikakeba, drawn by a native, furnish the visitor through the crowded thoroughfare.

In its color, the murmur of its strange tongue and the music of its throbbing instruments, this scene of Japan will be one of the enduring memories of the exposition.

NEW CAPITAL FOR THE PHILIPPINES

It Will Be 155 Miles from Manila and 5,000 Feet Above Sea Level.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Plans for the new capital of the Philippines were today made known by Secretary of War William H.
Taft. Secretary Taft said: "The capital will be about 155 miles from Manila on a plot of ground over 5,000 feet above sea level, which will make it far more healthy for Americans. It is to be the Philippines what St. Louis was for the United States. The climate is superb, the location is good and the opportunities for men with capital will be very great."

EMPEROR WILLIAM WELCOMED TO MALTA

VALETTA, Island of Malta, April 9.—The German imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with Emperor William on board, arrived here today and was met outside and escorted into the harbor by a flotilla of British torpedo boat destroyers. The whole British fleet in these waters fired a salute and dressed ship in honor of the German Emperor. His Majesty, who is in the best of health, was accorded an enthusiastic reception by an immense crowd of people. The Governor of Malta went on board the Hohenzollern to welcome the Emperor.

MAN SHOT BY GUARD AT DECOY IS DEAD

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., April 9.—Henry Deeter, who, under peculiar circumstances, was shot by Conrad Wigman at Greentree, is dead. Wigman has been arrested, charged with the murder. The shooting occurred while Wigman, who is a tenant of Henry Spies, a wealthy farmer and lumber dealer was watching a decoy package placed in a spot designated in a letter to Spies, demanding $1,000.

Steamer Is Launched.

LORAIN, O., April 9.—In the presence of an immense crowd of spectators the big steamer Augustus B. Wolvin, the largest vessel ever built on fresh water, and said to be the largest boat designed especially for carrying freight in the world, was successfully launched at the American Ship Building Company's yards here to-day.

MANAGERE FROM INDIA HAS ARRIVED IN BOSTON

German Ship Reaches Port with Ten Elephants, Boxes of Monkeys and Many Snakes.

BRIGHT PLUMAGED BIRDS

BOSTON, April 9.—The big German steamer Scharzfelds of the Hansa line, Captain Bathmann, has arrived in port and was assisted to her berth at the Eastern Railroad pier, East Boston, by two tugs which were about the harbor later than usual, for it was after dark when the foreigner was made fast.

The Scharzfelds, besides having one of the most valuable cargoes ever brought to Boston, had on board a veritable menagerie, including ten elephants, twenty-three boxes of monkeys, twenty-six of snakes, a tiger and four tiger cubs, three leopards, a bear, an orial, six antelopes and seven boxes of birds of bright plumage.

The animals were shipped from Calcutta by Carl Belle, and will be taken to New York by the steamer when she leaves here in a few days. Six bulls and 215 packages of fodder were put on board the vessel for food for the animals. The bulls were killed from time to time and fed to the leopards and tigers.

A native of India who has had long experience with wild animals came over in charge of the shipment.
Twenty-eight packages of exhibits from the Indian government for the St. Louis exposition were on the vessel. The cargo also included buffalo hides, tiger skins, gunnies, hide cuttings, curios, indigo, shelter, tea, rice, salt-peter, plumbago and a miscellaneous assortment of merchandise from India. A conservative estimate of the value of the entire cargo, including the animals, is $1,500,000.

The Scharzfelds left Calcutta Feb. 20, proceeding to Colombo, where additional cargo was taken on board. She left Colombo March 1, passing through the Red Sea, Suez canal, Mediterranean and the Atlantic. The ship has a crew of forty-two lascars while her eleven officers are all Germans.

On reaching quarantine, the Scharzfelds was put through the process of fumigation and all hands were taken ashore and bathed, in accordance with the government regulations on all vessels arriving at United States ports from the cargo will be unloaded here, the balance being consigned to New York merchants. The steamer made an exceptionally good run considering the fact that boisterous weather was experienced much of the time after passing Gibraltar.

MOVING PICTURES AS CURE FOR THE INSANE

Experiment in Dunning Asylum Pronounced a Success by Dr.
Podstada.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Moving pictures as an aid to the cure of insane patients have been tried for the first time at the Dunning Asylum. Dr. V. H. Podstada, superintendent, said of the test that the effect was beneficial. The performance on the canvas drew the attention and interest of every one of the 400 patients gathered in the entertainment hall. The seemingly realistic pictures of figures which appeared and disappeared in the rim of light opened a new channel for their new thoughts and led them away from the particular hallucination or delusion which affected their minds. The excited patients seemed to be quieted and calmed by the pictures. Those suffering from chronic melancholia appeared to be stimulated and aroused from their constant brooding over imaginary wrong and shown an unusual interest in what was going on.

As a result of the experiment a moving picture machine will be purchased for the asylum and entertainments will be given once or twice each week for the benefit of all patients who are not so violent as to need constant restraint.

pected to be very interesting.

At the Flanner Guild this afternoon Theo-principal speaker. The services last Sunday were very interesting, and a subscription was taken for the food sufferers, a number of whom found a refuge at the guild. This institution is doing a good and commendable charity work that is meeting with the support of the best colored people.

The Elite Stock Company, a newly organized dramatic company, gave their first audience. They will repeat the play in the
